About the Security Institute (SyI) & Perpetuity Training

The Security Institute aims to raise the professionalism of security both in the UK and internationally.

The Security Institute also works closely with other key security organisations, and lobbies government and stakeholder groups to help drive up standards.

Perpetuity Training is one of the foremost providers of security management training in the UK and has a unique background in security research, education and qualification.

About the Qualification

The Certificate is an internationally recognised qualification that leads to membership of the Security Institute at a minimum of Associate level (subject to application & validation) and offers the security professional the chance to update their skills and improve their career progression in today's competitive industry.

On acceptance to the Institute you will also be able to enjoy the numerous benefits of membership including:

- Professional recognition
- Access to conference and networking events
- Contact with fellow members
- Free copies of the yearbook and SyI publications
- Access to special offers and discounts
- Networking lunches and dinners
- Monthly newsletters
- Website access

Who will benefit?

The course will benefit anyone seeking professional recognition and qualification within the security sector. The course is open to all those who operate within the private and public security sectors. People who have previously taken the qualifications include security managers, health and safety managers, police officers, members of the armed services and those working in safety and security.

How do I study for the course?

The course is delivered by distance learning, giving you the advantage of being able to start the course at any point in the year and study anywhere in the world.

What support can I expect?

Whilst you are working towards your qualification, you can be assured that Perpetuity Training will be with you every step of the way. Enrolling on one of our courses means that there will always be someone to help you.

All our tutors are members of the Security Institute and hold MScs in Security Management. You can contact an experienced tutor by email or phone. In addition our experienced and friendly course administrators are also available to help you with any admin related issues.

How long does the course take?

The course will take 12 months to complete (subject to examination dates).

Certificate Programme

The course is delivered by distance learning and consists of six modules, three of which are mandatory and three of which are selective. The course has been developed with continuous learning in mind therefore half of the final mark is made up by continuous assessment assignments and the other half from final examinations.

Mandatory Modules

- English or Irish Law
- Management
- Fire Prevention & Control and Health and Safety

Selective Modules

- Security of Corporate Assets
- Protection of Persons, Equipment, Information & Goods
- Emergency Situations
- Practical Retail Security
- Security Orientated Law as it affects the Retailer
- Information Security

Assessment is by course work and examination, held twice yearly.

Enrolment can be at any time during the year.
