

The Security Institute

Mentoring Scheme

We care passionately about raising standards, and one of the most effective ways we can do this on an individual level is through our Mentoring Scheme.

We will match you with one of our knowledgeable security professionals who has relevant experience, in order to provide free personal one-to-one advice by phone, email or through face-to-face meetings.

Benefits of Mentoring

- Helps you realise your full potential
- You define your career goals and aspirations
- Builds self-confidence
- Develops networking
