Education Partners

The Security Institute and Perpetuity Training work closely to deliver training within the Security Profession.

The Security Institute is the largest association for security professionals in the UK, offering networking, news and events, and a unique validation of experience much valued by employers and clients.

Perpetuity Training is the foremost provider of security management training in the UK and has a unique background in security research, education and qualification.

Diploma Programme

The course is delivered by distance learning giving you the advantage of being able to start the course and study from anywhere in the world. The Diploma is assessed on written assignments (2 per module, approximately 1,500 words each). The five mandatory modules are:

- Understanding Security
- Threats to Security
- Risk Management
- The Legal System
- Management

About the Qualification

The Diploma, which is accredited to a BTEC Level 5 Professional Diploma by EdExcel, is internationally recognised and is the flagship qualification leading to full Membership of the Security Institute (subject to application and validation).

Being accredited by the University of Portsmouth means successful completion of the course enables you to fast-track to year two of their BSc (Hons) in Risk and Security Management. The course takes 12 months to complete with intakes in January, May and September.

Whilst you are working towards your qualification, you can be assured that you will be supported every step of the way. All our tutors are members of the Security Institute and hold MAs or MScs in Security Management.

The Tutors

Ken Livingstone

Ken served as an officer in the Royal Military Police before gaining an MSc in Security Management and Information

Technology at The University of Leicester. He later directed the Scarman Centres degree courses in security management, before leaving to direct Loughborough University's security management courses. He later returned to the Scarman Centre where he was appointed Assistant Director. Ken is a Fellow and Board Member of the Security Institute, sits on the Editorial Board of the Security Journal, and is a visiting lecturer at The University of Leicester

Charlie Swanson

Charlie served 22 years in the Royal Military Police and holds an MSc in Security Management and IT. His specialist areas include security surveying, electronic systems, health & safety and delivering learning. Charlie also sits on the Academic Committee of The Security Institute and is studying MLitt in the study of terrorism at The University of St Andrews.

Benefits

The course will benefit anyone seeking professional recognition and qualification within the security sector at management level. It offers the professional security manager the opportunity to update their skills and improve their career progression in today's competitive industry. The course is open to all those who operate within the private and public security sectors and have a minimum of 5 years experience in security and/or management

Testimonials

Steven Molloy Retail Security

"I have been in my current role for 17 years and I am very happy as the assistant security manager but I am here by experience rather than qualification and in this time of employment unrest I felt that I should start to get some formal qualification under my belt."

Deborah Keelan Specialist School Security advisor for Salford City Council
Children's Services

"It has given me confidence to think about my future in security management and maybe explore areas that I hadn't thought about before for future career development."
